The editors of Tower '73 wish to express thanks to the following people: Melanie Bennett, for the cover design; Mauria Fitzgerald, for the photographic essay; Porch-lighters for their energies; Mr. John Oller, for the senior informals and candid; and Ron Cooper for photographic work over and above the call of duty. Finally, an extra special thanks with sugar on top, and perhaps a Maraschino cherry, to Mrs. Susan Graziano, without whose help this yearbook would not have been possible.

And they tell him,

Take your time,

it won't take long now

May 20, 1973

Dear Dr. Kinney:

We are free at last to do what we want and to believe in the causes that have meaning for us. This final year at Rumson-Fair Haven has been the beginning of a new awareness for the class of '73. We have learned the meaning of responsibility by experience, the significance of knowledge through teaching ourselves and the appreciation of freedom by stating our own limits.

As the man behind this new Senior Program, you have repeatedly expressed your faith in us. You have helped us to realize our individual potentials so that we are now aware that there is a world beyond these four walls and a desk.

We are grateful for your encouragement and support. There is no better way to state our feelings than simply to say—

Thank you, Dr. Kinney.

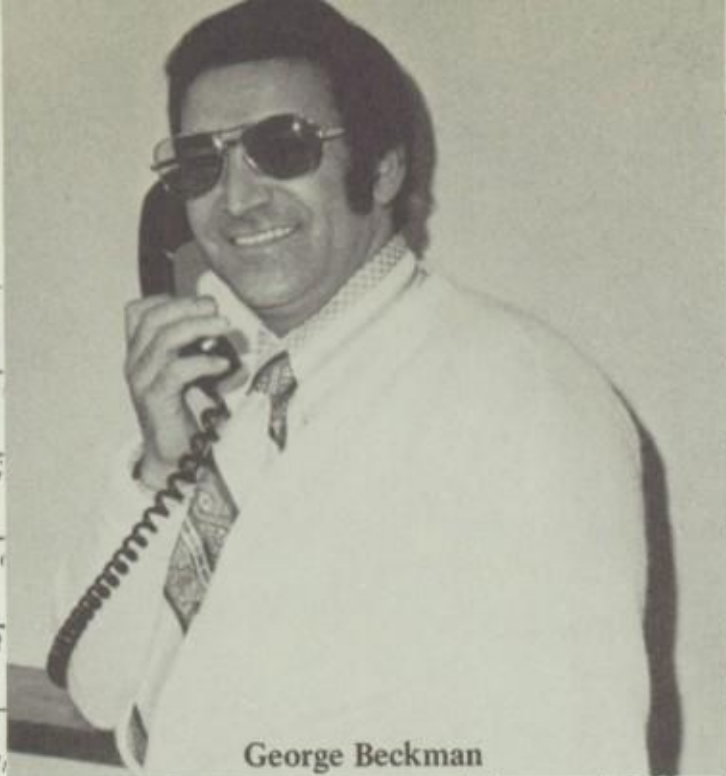

Sincerely,

Class of '73

National Honor Society

National Honor Society is made up of those students who excel both scholastically and extracurricularly; they do a service to the school by tutoring other students. Serving as officers are Leonard Kovensky, president; Diane Manning, vice-president; Carol Gibbons, secretary, and Polly Evans, assistant to the secretary. The advisor is Mr. Thomas Bain.

A.F.S. officers: Ann Crolius, treasurer; Simone Forster, exchange student; Diane Manning, vice-president; Peggy Smith, president; Barbara Brennan, vice-president.

American Field Service, under Mrs. Louise Usechak, tries to promote knowledge of the world, its cultures and peoples, through student exchange. This year's exchange student is Simone Forster, from Germany. She is living with the Kemerrer Edwards family of Fair Haven.

Our community A.F.S. chapter under the leadership of Mrs. Jo Brennan chooses finalists from the school for annual A.F.S. international scholarships. Last year, Peggy Smith, who was a recipient of this scholarship, went to Italy for the summer. 1973 finalists from Rumson-Fair Haven Regional are Diane Manning and Marc de Laperouse.

Simone Forster and her American family, the Edwards.

The Student Council, presided over by Matt Kondolf, sponsors many of the school's functions. Included among these is the Cultural Series, which this year saw Duke Ellington come to RFH. The other officers are Scott Campbell and Dan Goroff, vice-presidents; Wendy Pearce, recording secretary; Sue Waldron, corresponding secretary; and Penny Johnson, senior treasurer. Financial advisor is Mr. Joseph Cieri, and the faculty advisor is Mr. Floyd DeNicola.

FOODS LAB.

The Home Ec Club, advised by Mrs. Shirley Oberg, convenes weekly to try gourmet dishes.

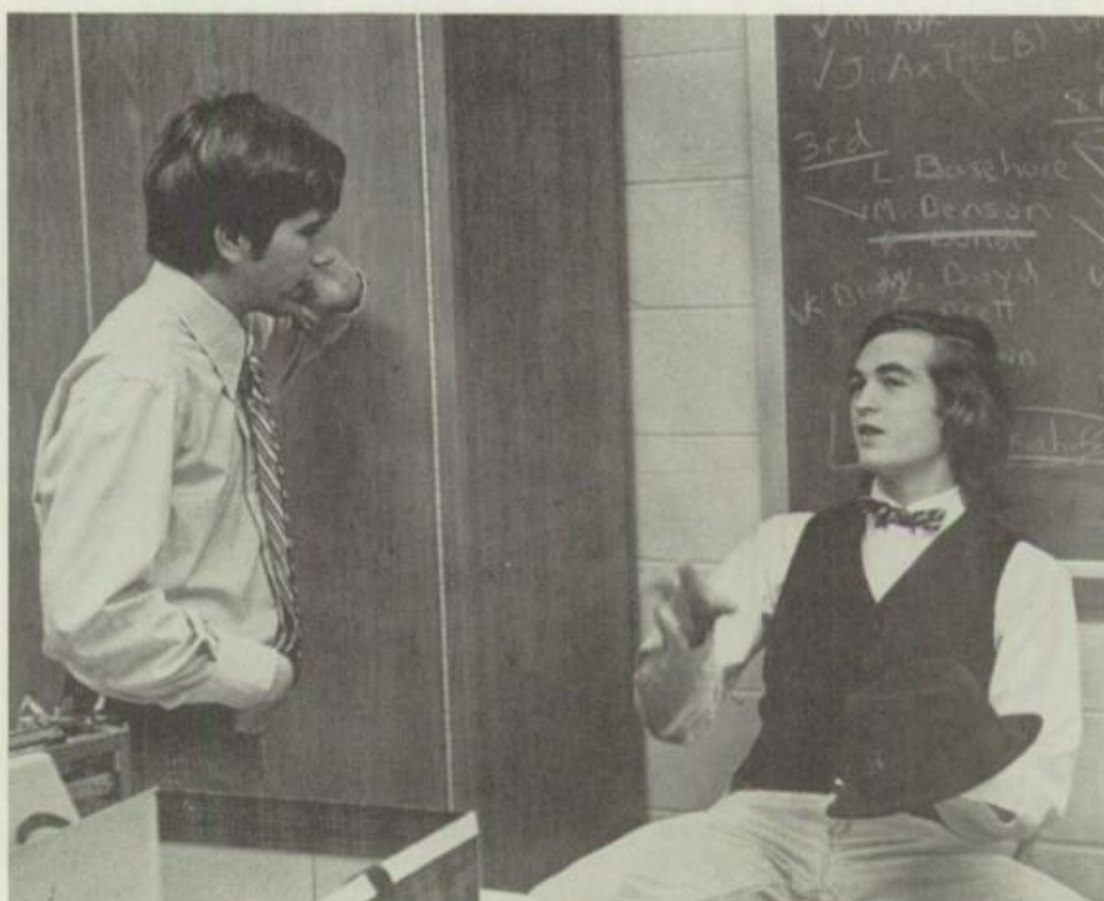

Concerned with eventual careers of students, the Future Nurses and Future Teachers Clubs provide members with information and activities exploring these fields. The Future Nurses, under the guidance of Mrs. Gloria Morton, and the Future Teachers, advised by Mrs. Marolyn Bell, meet regularly to plan and carry out relevant projects.

Advisor, Mrs. Susan F.B. Graziano, exhibits her usual compassion and concern for the plight of the yearbook staff.

Consistently the best of the school's publications, the Tower yearbook accepts only choice prime-cut students for editors. The "person" who must make these difficult choices is Ms. Susan Graziano. As you have probably discovered by now, this yearbook is no exception and has followed the examples of past yearbooks—all steeped in tradition.

Triskelion

Triskelion is an outlet for the creative mind. A unique fusing of original writing, art and photography with a variety of technical skills, it presents art forms within an art form and provides a cultural focus for the school community.

Editors, Sue Burlew and Dru deSantis, disagree with advisor Alan Lyster.

Departure from the confines of "We don't have many troublemakers," the classroom through independent research removes from the teacher and places on the student the responsibility for the amount of knowledge gained in this learning process. Independent Study can take the student many places: a laboratory—a factory—a big city have a function in society and I think that it is only through old-age home—a local business. And working together that it may be found.

Administrators Are Ready and Waiting

This younger generation is forced to endure an age in which their elders are blatantly ignoring their responsibility to manipulate them into capable citizens.

Every year we draw closer and closer to the future reality of one megalopolis extending from Boston to Washington. Our community is one of those most clearly affected. We have no outdoors to speak of, only one limitless suburb. Although man can live in suburbs, nothing can substitute his innate need for the wild outdoors.

New and innovative ideas are set forth every day here at Rumson-Fair Haven Regional.

Eighteen-year-olds will be able to drink legally beginning January 1, 1973. Except for a few prohibited areas, such as schools, people eighteen and older who were previously restricted will be able to purchase and consume alcohol wherever they choose. Obviously, this could create some problems.

Meanwhile, we must all remain in a neverending vigil and pledge ourselves to never again allow the Curse of the Camera to override the art of photography. by Celia Goldwag

Underneath the glaring rhetoric of the women's liberation movement in the high school, we find a few valid points. Mainly that a re-evaluation of sexual roles is necessary.

This year's musical, Guys and Dolls, is the story of the reformation of a crapshooter by a missionary. Containing all the ingredients that make a musical good — romance, adventure, and well known music — it was a success. Starring Peggy Smith, Kevin Kelly, Mauria Fitzgerald, and John Goldstein, the play was performed with the usual quality of an RFH production.

Due to circumstances within their control, the Senior Class decided to be unique this year, in more ways than one, and so did away with the Senior Variety Show. Instead the seniors planned a rummage sale and car wash.

Considering the following potential skit, we, the editors, feel the class took a course diametrically in tune with the transcendental philosophies prevalent in our atavistic society:

FARKLE FAMILY (by Marc de Laperouse)

Fred: Hi. I'm Fred Farkle and father of this friendly, filthy family.

Frances: Hi. I'm Frances Farkle, a faithful, frowsy frump and Fred's freckled, fulgent fancy.

Faith: Hi. My name's Faith Farkle and I fake filial fealty to my fastidious father. (Pats father.)

Floyd: Peace, I'm Floyd Farkle and I feel like the freak of the family.

Frank: Hello, I'm Frank, the flippant faetotum who feigns to be a Farkle to flirt with Frances. (Pinches Frances.)

Fred: (with small dog in arms) And this is foolish, fawning, frolicsome Fido Farkle who follows furtively foxes and fowl. (Pats dog.) Hark, that must be my forgotton frere, Fritz Farkle, who flourishes as a free-lance flyer in Frankfurt. (Knock, knock.)

Fritz: (Skips into room, waving arms up and down as if flying.) Hi, fellow Farkles. I'm the flying fruit from Frankfurt who flits frenetically from the far-flung Philippines to the firmament of Finland to flat Flanders.

Faith: That Fritz is a flighty flower.

Floyd: No, Fritz is a fulsome, frivolous fool.

Fritz: (Stops motioning and gets in even line with others. Then he stares straight out into the audience.) I feel I must be frank, fellow Farkles. I fabricated the fact of being a fruit from Frankfurt for I am a fugitive from the fuzz. I fought with a farmer in a fray with fisticuffs and fled.

(The next short lines are said down the line in order)

Fred: I'm forlorn.

Frances: I'm fearful.

Faith: I'm frantic.

Floyd: I'm flabbergasted.

Frank: I'm Frank.

Fred: Do not fret, Farkle family. I, Fred, am a friend of Fritz's foe, the farmer, and have a flair for filling the finances of the fuzz.

Everybody: (Chests are raised and let out with a big sigh.) Pheeewww!

Fritz: I am famished.

Frances: So let us fix a fitting feast with fondue for Fritz.

Fritz: Oh, fudge! I hate to frustrate your fun, folks, but I fain must fly for I have forgotton my fiery fiancée in France. Farewell. (Exits, skipping and waving arms as if flying.)

Frank: Who was that flashy fuddy-duddy?

Floyd: And I felt like a freak?

Fred: This finishes another fiasco of the Farkle family.

On the first year of their return to the Shore Conference, the RFH gridders posted a 3-6 record. Coach Bill Savage's players started auspiciously with a 56-0 win over Jackson, but due to inexperience and injuries, later faltered.

One of the key injuries felled captain Jim Finn. Finn was outstanding as a fullback and linebacker until breaking a bone at Highland Park. Jim earned the Vince Lombardi Trophy for his great line play.

Co-captain Ed McManus played well all season as a halfback. Fine defensive play was turned in by Kevin Callinan and Jeff Pezzuti. Next year's hopes lie with juniors Mike Olshan, Archie Feather and Geoff Kiebertz.

Although the soccer team had a disappointing 4-10-1 record, many players achieved individual triumphs. Eight of the eleven first teamers were seniors.

At fullback the starters were Dan Miles, who made second team all-division, and either Marc Cosentino or Marc de Laperouse. Senior halfbacks Don Schreiber, Greg Dell'omo, and Len Kovensky also received honors. Co-captain Schreiber made second team all-division for his outstanding defensive play, and Greg received honorable mention. Len made first team all-division, honorable mention all-state, and was elected most valuable player by his teammates.

Co-captain Mark Stollwerck walked away with most of the line honors, including team high scorer, first team all-division, second team all-area group I and II, second team all-state group II and all-Shore in the Long Branch Record. Wing Mike Lazo made third team all-division.

Other senior starters were linemen Mike Ashkin and Rick Coleman. The coach of this team was James Parker, in his second year of coaching soccer at RFH.

Led by Russ Jones and Jon Martin, co-captains, the cross country team finished an outstanding 2-3. Two of these losses were to state champions Middletown and Red Bank Catholic. In invitationals the team placed sixth out of thirty (Shore Conference Meet) and third out of fifteen (Sectionals). Jones' victory in the Sectionals was the first ever by an RFH harrier. Coached by Vincent Esposito, the team should do well in the future.

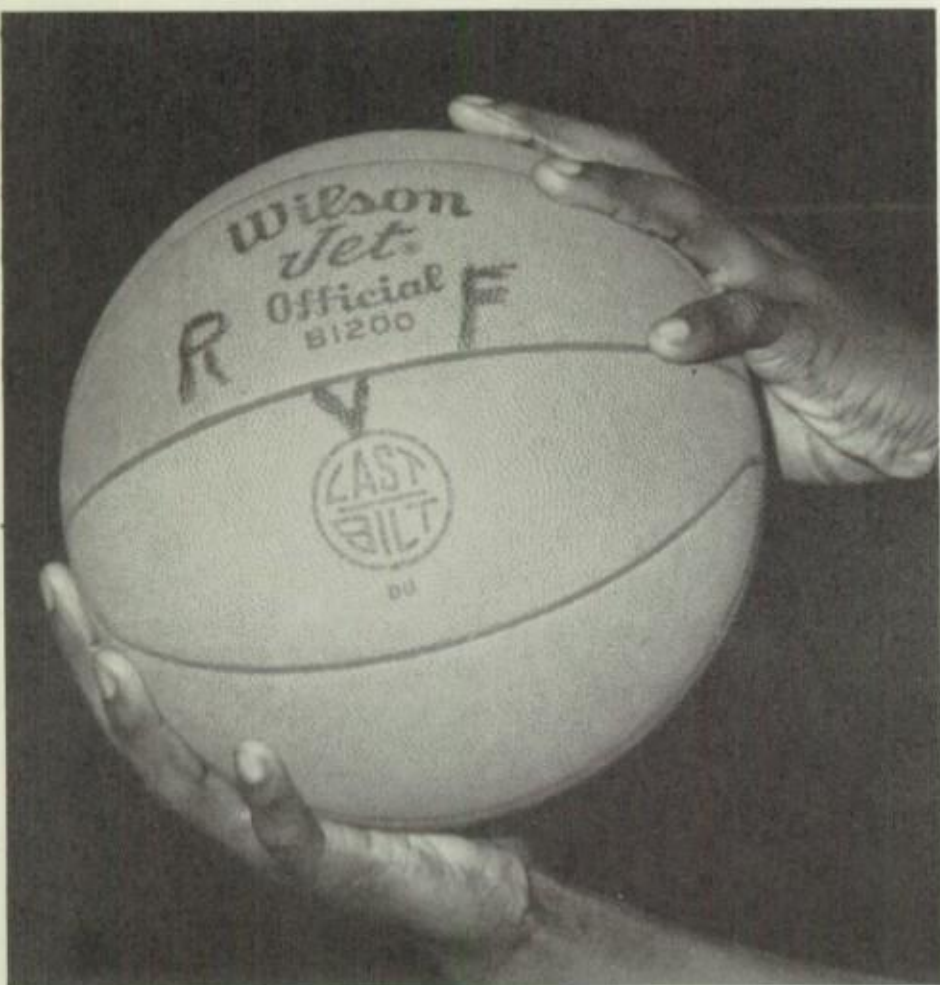

ROW 1: B. Kamin, J. Hohorst, M. Gearty, B. Hidu, C. Diano, G. Hill, D. Goroff, B. Jaus, B. Shine, A. Sheehan.
ROW 2: V. Esposito, S. Ericson, S. Munger, R. Jones, J. Martin, J. Munger, G. Hamilton.

"Gotta find a woman, gotta find a woman!"

Coach Tom Botti congratulates Palvin Williams on being the fourth player in RFH history to score 1000 career points.

Front: Co-captains Palvin Williams and Ken Crichlow.
Back: Penny Johnson, Dan Miles, Jeff Pezzuti, Tom Halligan, Cory Wingerter, Bill Strohmerger, Chris Davidson, Ed McManus, Dick Crichlow, Bill Davidson, Jim Warshauer and Coach Tom Botti.

With pre-season games showing a lack of team cohesiveness, the outlook for the season was uncertain. But as games went by, the Bulldogs worked out their problems and had a fine season, which was highlighted by co-captain Palvin Williams scoring his 1,000th point.

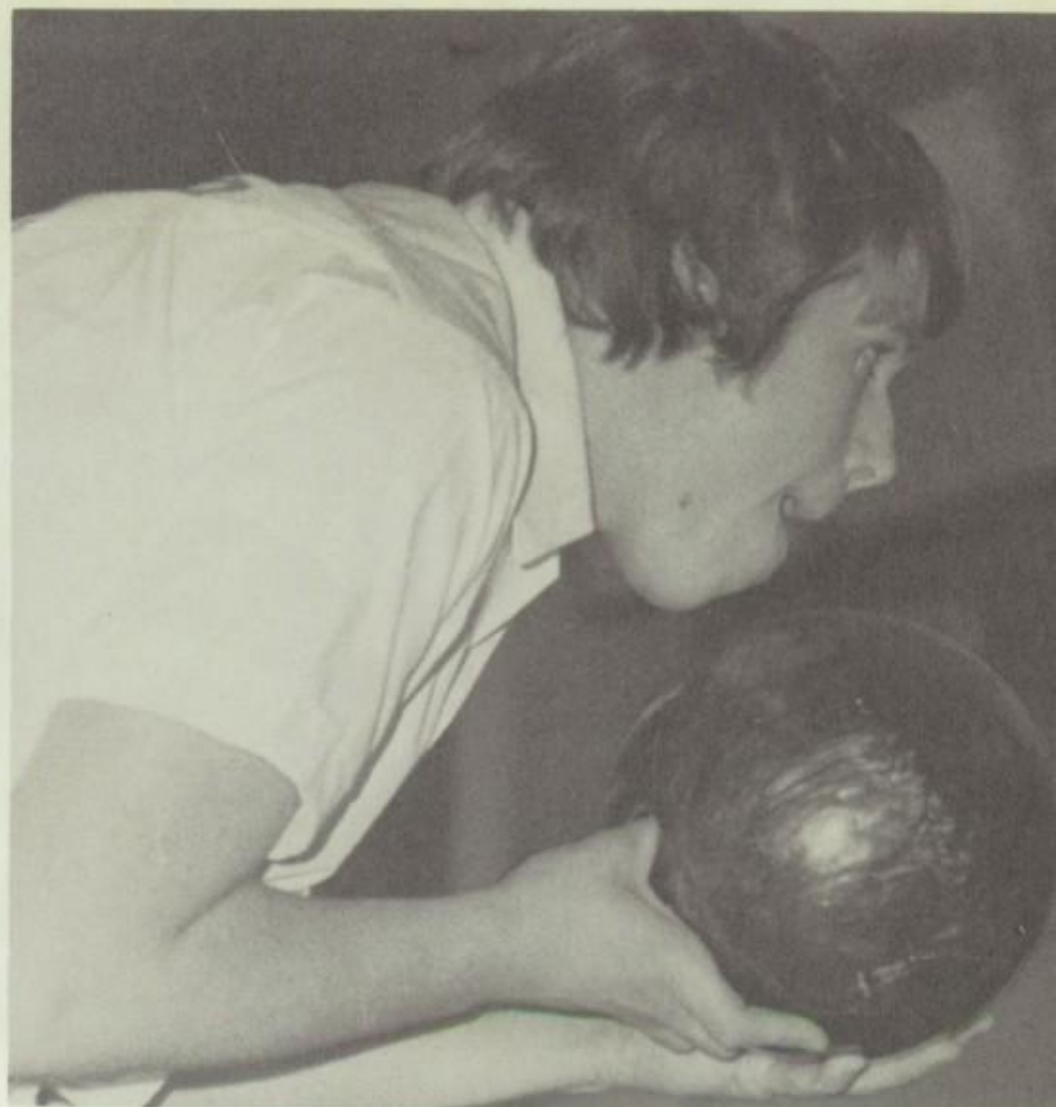

Co-captain Ken Crichlow also had an outstanding season as he teamed up with Ed McManus, Jeff Pezzuti and Tom Halligan to make up the rest of the starting five.

One of the team's stronger points was the bench. At any time Coach Tom Botti could depend on a reserve to fill in and do a fine job. There were many games where Chris Davidson, Bill Strohmenger and Dick Crichlow made the difference between winning or losing.

After completing a 15-6 season, the team entered the state tournament. Beating their first three opponents, the Bulldogs met Highland Park for the Central Jersey Group II Championship. In a thrilling encounter ending in a 70-69 score, R-FH emerged victorious.

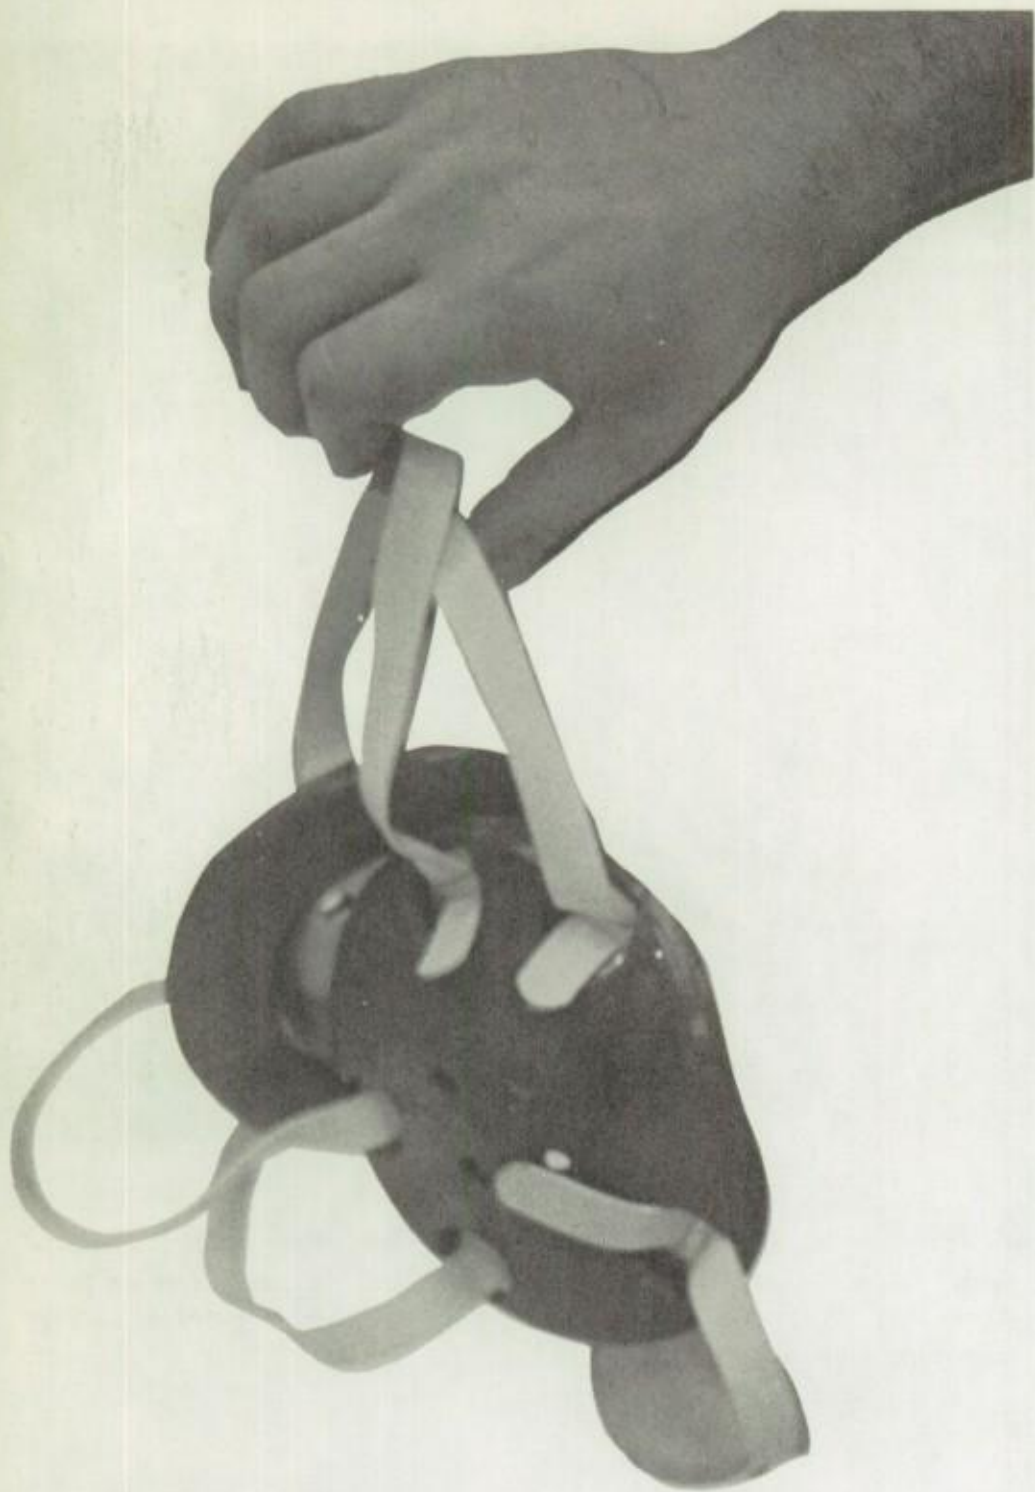

The bowling team did not exactly set the league on fire this past year. In fact, it is not even proper to discuss such a matter on these pages. If you want the inside dope on the bowling team, talk to either the team members or the team's fan.

5/8 OF THE 1973 VARSITY BOWLING TEAM:
 Front: Malcolm Amos, Leonard Kovensky.
 Back: Eric Kaepplein, Bob Collyer, Pete Tamblyn and Coach Alex Koharski.

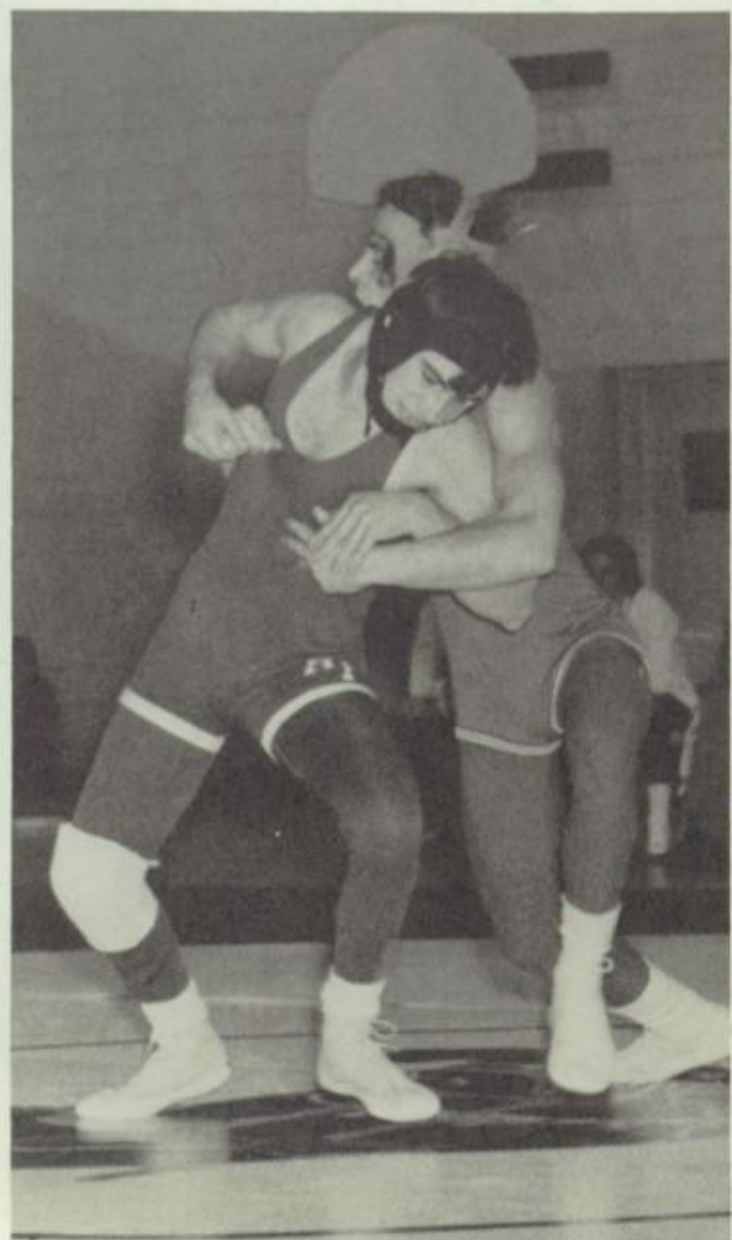

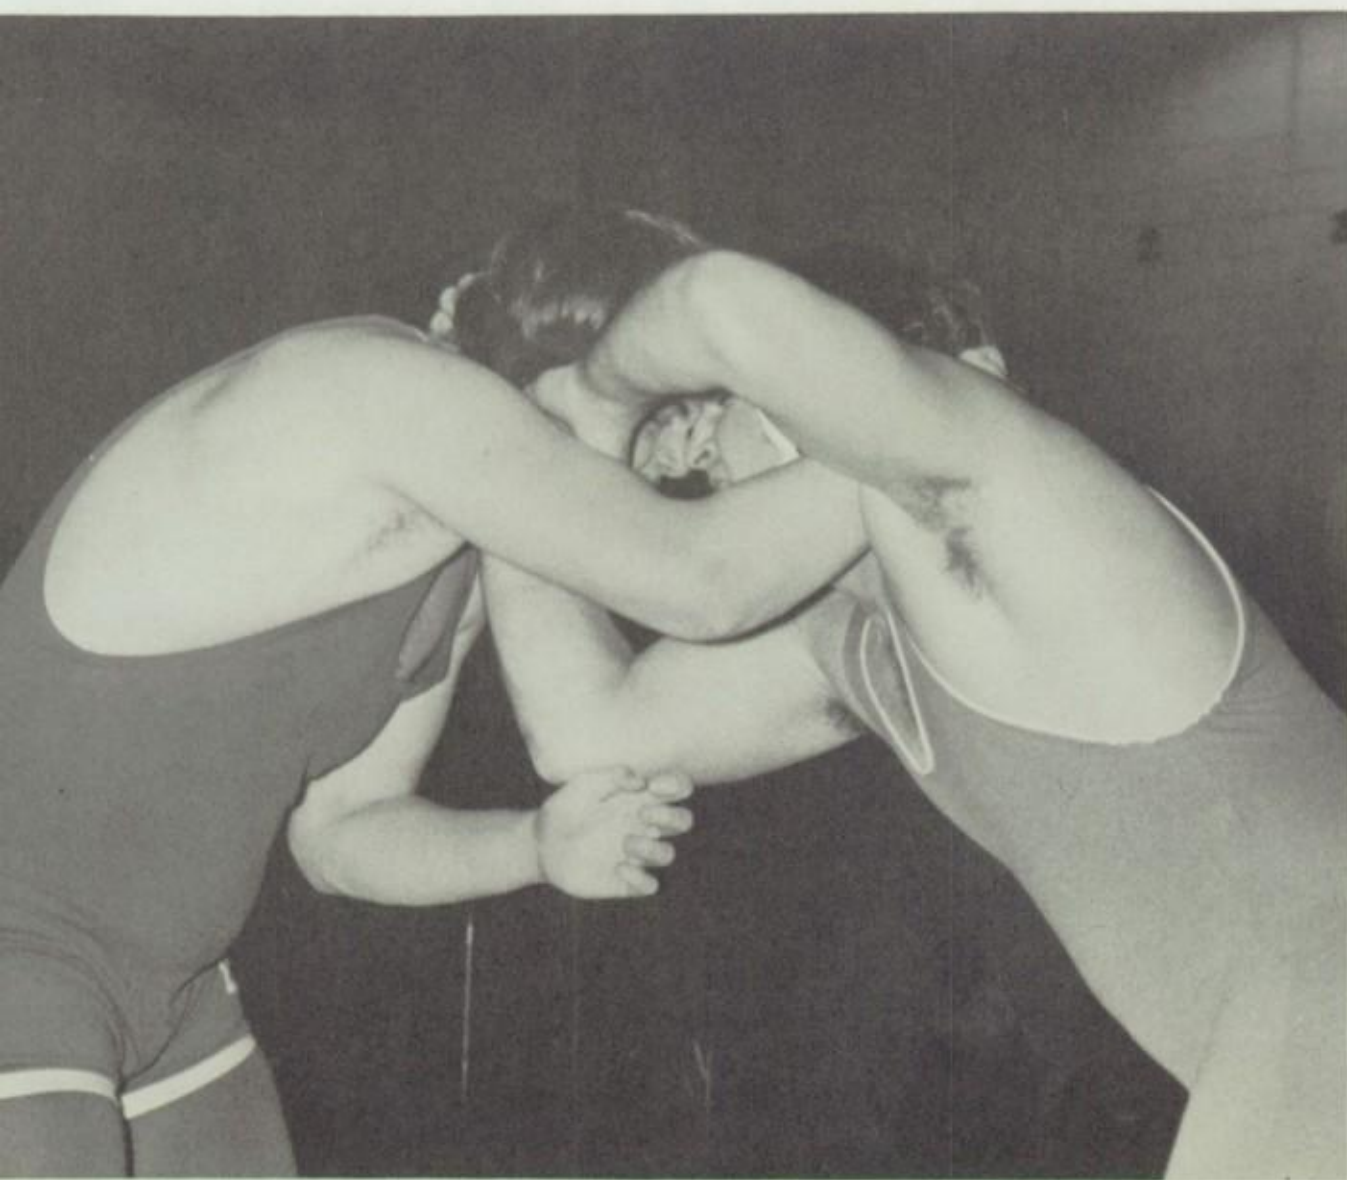

Varsity Wrestling Team:
Front: Mark Osmulski, Joe Connors, Joe Sacco, Jeff Handler, co-captain Tom Murphy.
Back: Scott Wingerter, Steve Hunt, Mark Mason, co-captain Don Schreiber, Mike Wade, coach William Frazee.

Co-captains Don Schreiber and Tom Murphy led the Bulldog grapplers this season. Wrestling at 148 and 130, respectively, the two posted the best records for the Bulldogs.

Other senior wrestlers were Jeff Handler and Joe Sacco. Mike Wade was the best of the underclassmen wrestlers, wrestling at 141 pounds.

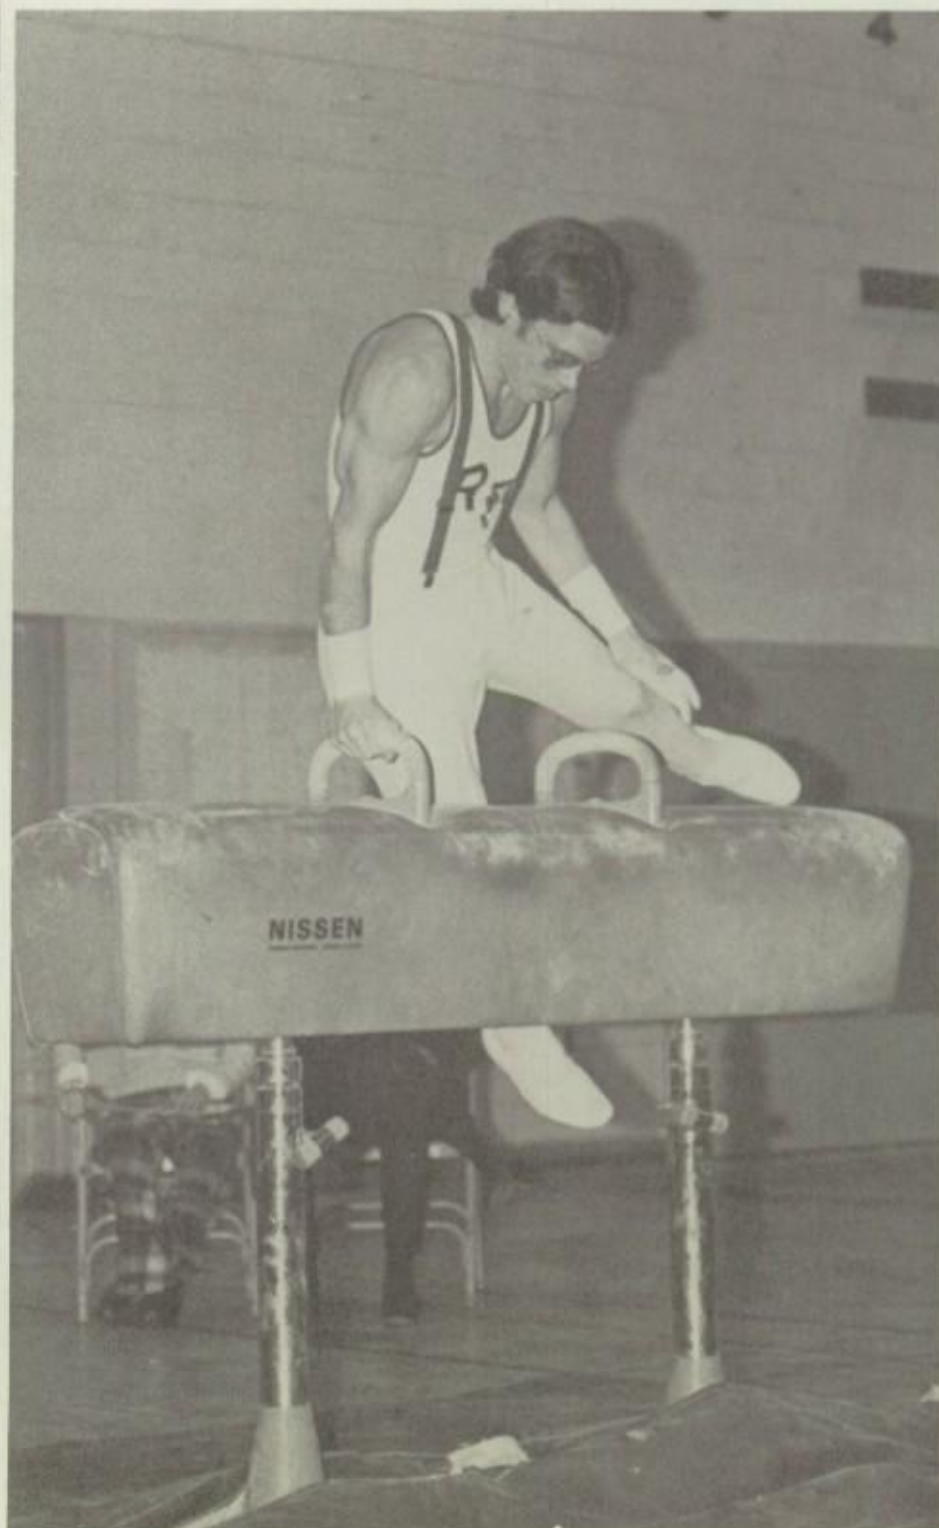

Coach William Frazee can look forward to a great amount of interest in wrestling for there is now both a jayvee and freshmen team, in addition to the varsity.

Gymnastics is the one sport which commands precise cooperation between body and mind. Concentration is the key to gymnastics.

The captain of this year's team was Tom Murphy. Tom performed best as a tumbler, but also did all-around. On the parallel bars Ron Coleman stood out with his consistently good performances. On the most demanding piece of equipment, the rings, Ken Marass performed more than ably. Bob Hitz regularly turned in high scores on the long horse. Coach Art Harmon's gymnasts did not have an extremely successful season, but many fine individual records were achieved.

Gymnastics Team:

Front: J. Mullarney, M. Cameron, P. Magennis, J. Nettles, M. Archibald, C. Andrews, J. Henry, B. Van Duyne, V. Delaney.

Back: Coach A. Harmon, R. Coleman, D. McLellan, captain T. Murphy, B. Boyer, S. Thompson, S. Smith, S. Bassini, D. Thompson, K. Marass, K. Rugg.

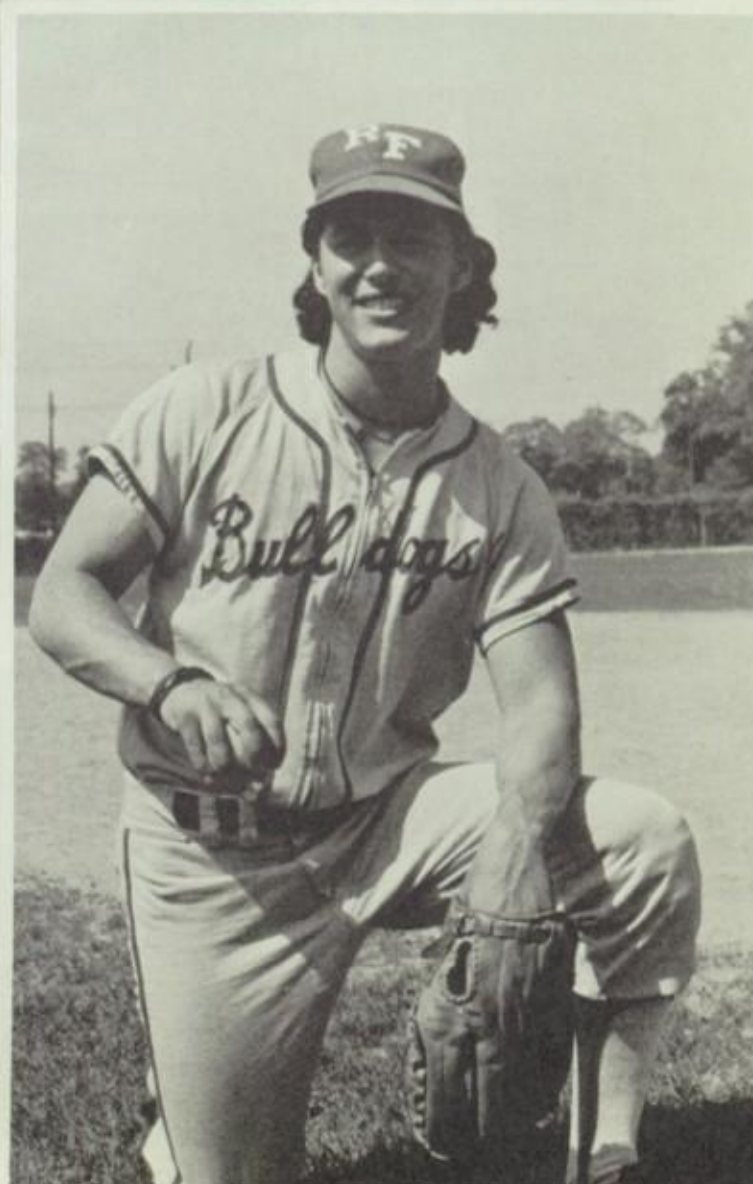

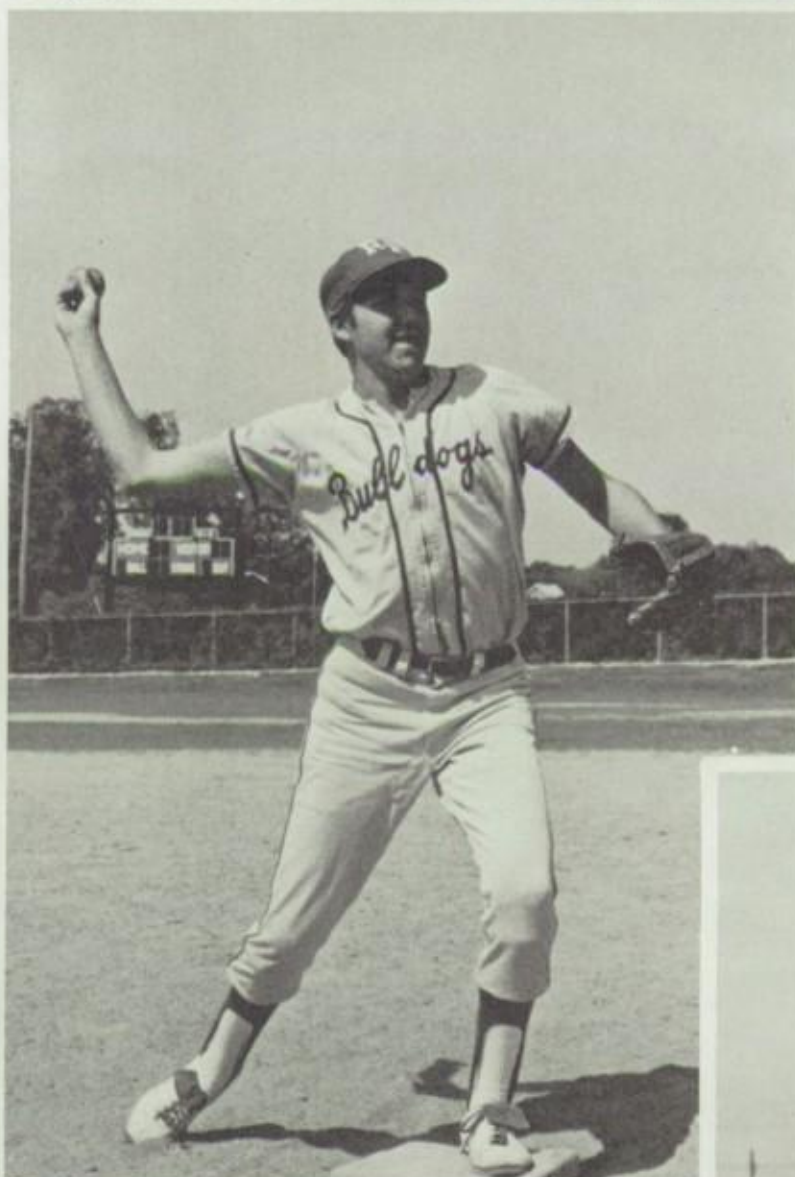

The group of senior baseball players this year is one of the finest assembled in years. Most of the starters are returning for their third varsity year. The captains of the team are Kevin Callinan and Jim Finn. Kevin handles the bulk of the catching while wielding a potent bat. Also a fine hitter, Jim is depended upon for his pitching ability. Steve McCormick, when not pitching, does double duty in the outfield and at first base. Bill Davidson plays centerfield and infield, while stealing most of the team's bases. Holding down the shortstop position is Greg Dell'omo, who plays outstanding defense. Another speedster is outfielder Bob Hitz. Other seniors who perform well during the season are Rich Sanborn and Bob Gearty. Coaching are Hal Lorme and Dick Richter.

The nonchalant nine:
 Standing: Steve McCormick, Jim Finn, Pete Ellison.
 2nd row: Rich Sanborn, Bob Hitz, Kevin Callinan.
 3rd row: Jeff Pezzuti, Bill Davidson.

"But you said I could lead!"

Why is this man smiling?

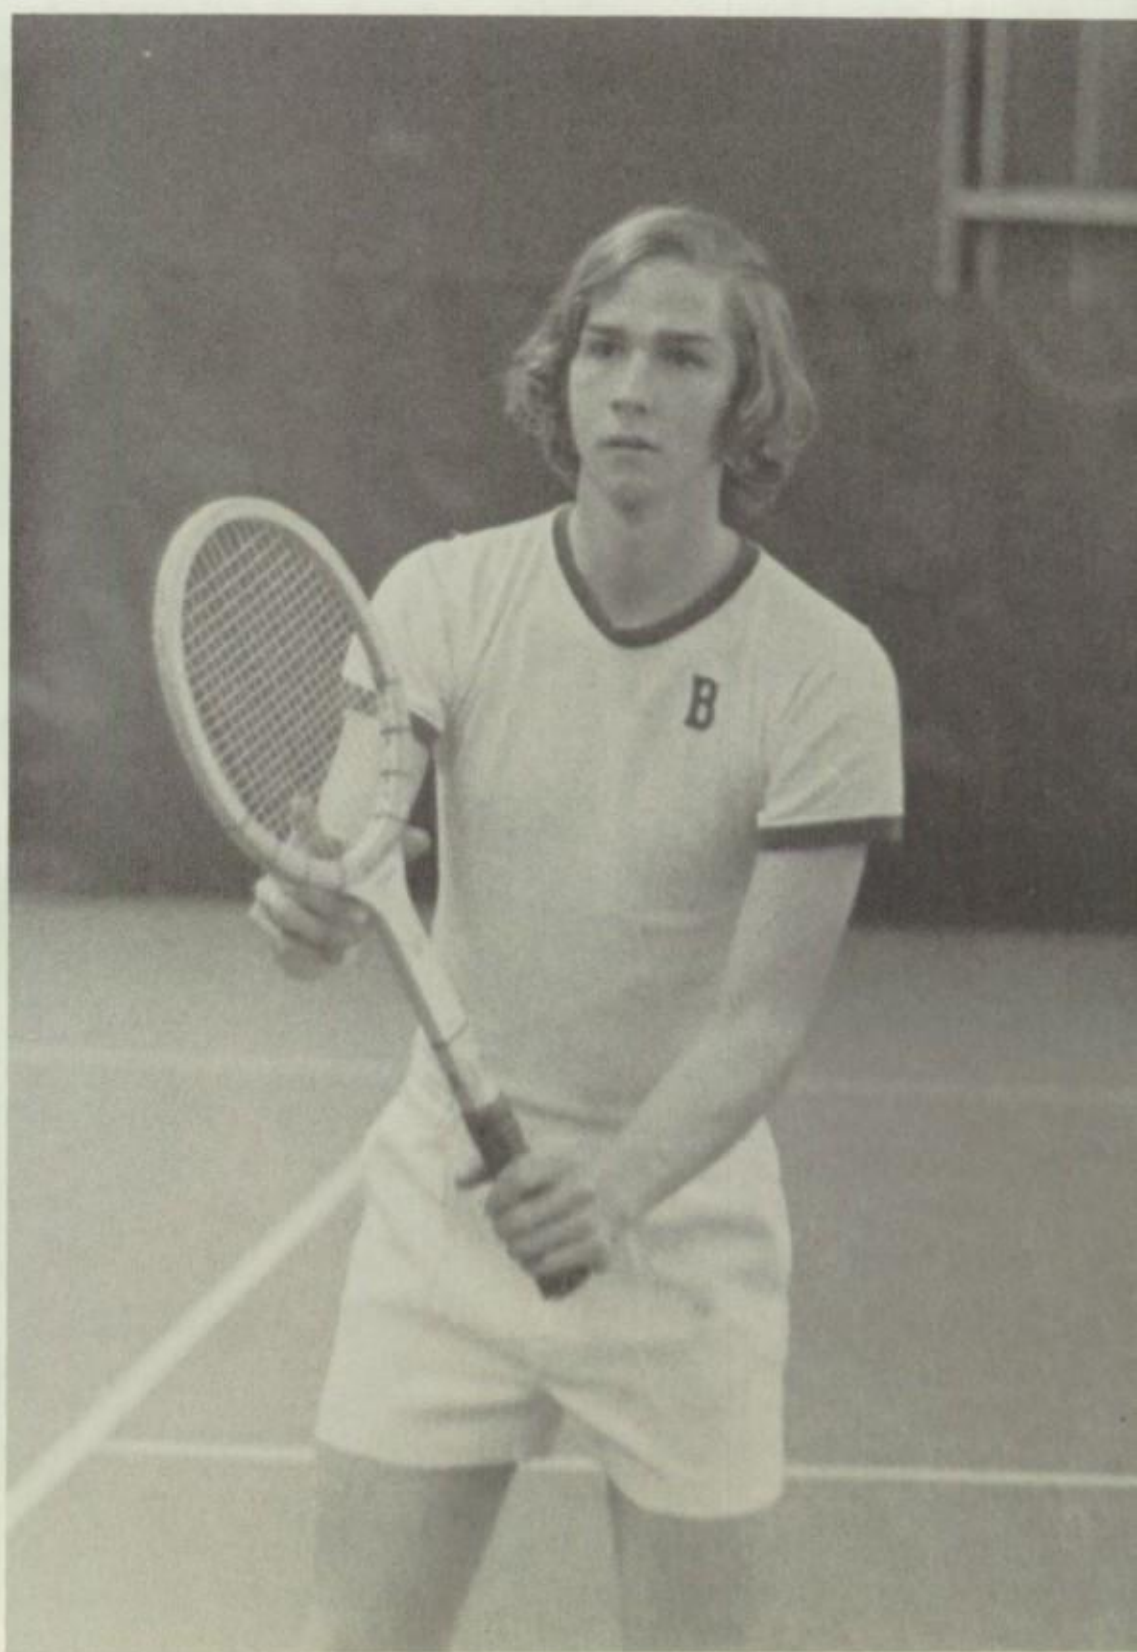

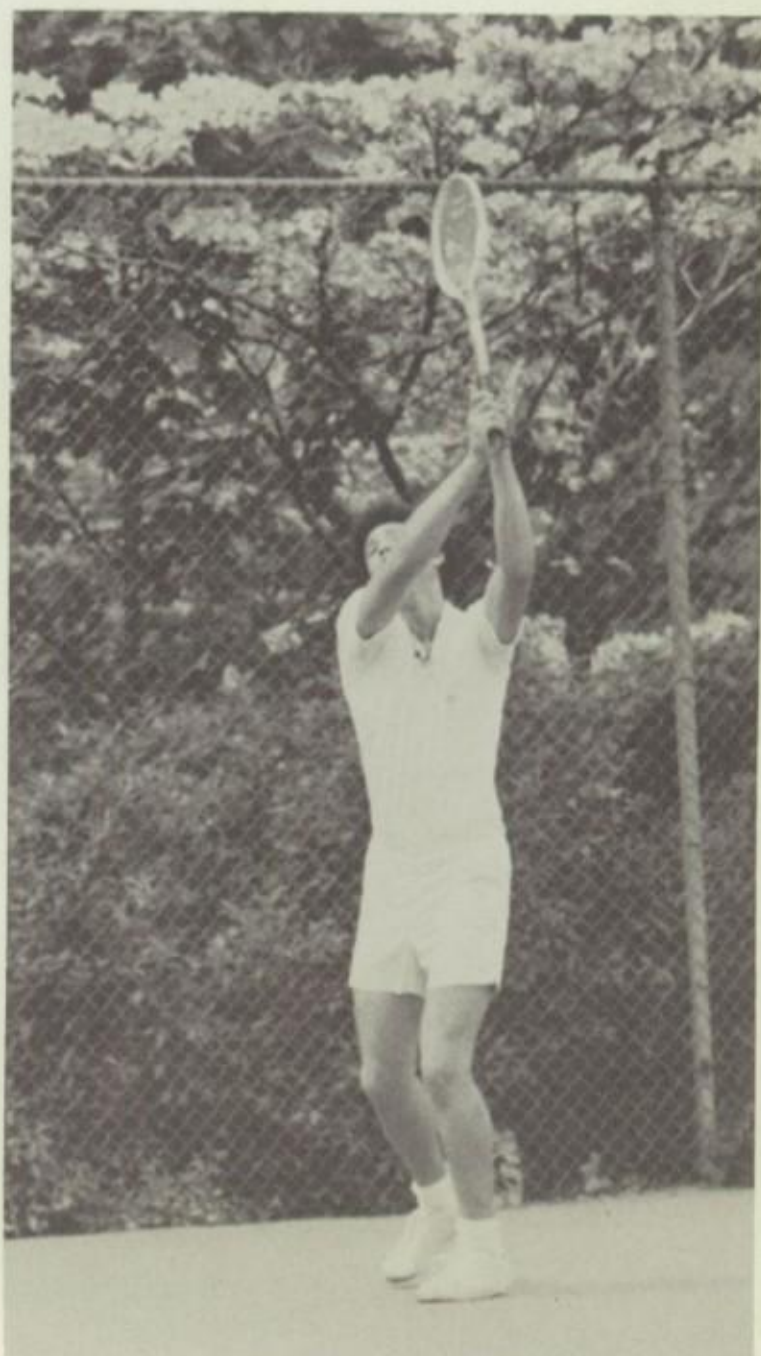

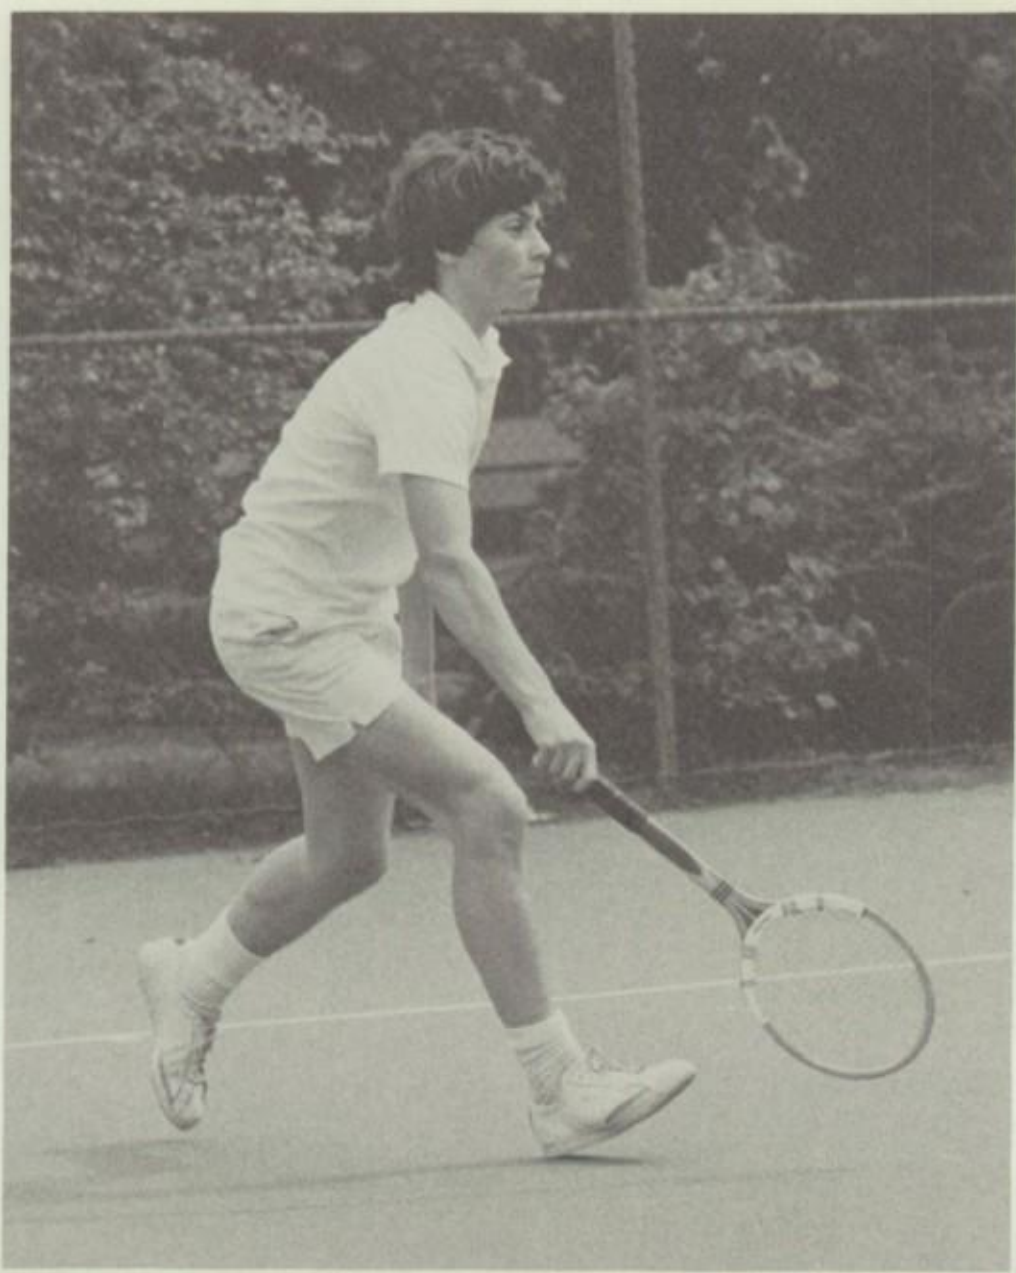

This year's seniors almost make a complete team by themselves, which is an unusual spread of talent. Russ Jones and Jon Martin can run the distances-880, mile and two-mile. Ed McManus can run the shorter races-440, 220, 100 and the high jump. Art Hughes is a hurdler and a high jumper. Rich Conley is a shot and discus thrower. Ken Marass is a pole vaulter and Bob Bowden throws the javelin. The coaches are Thomas Bain, Robert Young, Dewey Robinson, and Paul Drew.

Captain Tom Golder and senior John Freeman formed the nucleus for this year's tennis team. John, Tom and senior Jeff Jones played singles, while Jeff Handler and Kari Nordstrom paired off to play doubles. Coach Gail Burd also called upon Steve Sher, Jeff Coe and Frank Pritchard to play second doubles. The team won the B division title.

This year's varsity golf team found themselves competing against the spectre formed by previous RFH golf teams. Over the past four years, the team has compiled a record of 65 wins and 4 losses. Undaunted by the pressure, captain Bill Brinckerhoff and Rick Coleman led the team with their fine scores. Also supplying varsity experience was sophomore Cliff Thompson.

Bill Brinckerhoff, Coach George Giffin, Rick Coleman.

Chess Club with advisor Joseph Kemprecos.

Neil Waldhauer, chess whiz, is the team leader.

Much of the credit for the successes of the RFH sports teams belongs to the coaches. A good coach is dedicated to both players and performance. Disciplining and guiding the players, he is a steady factor on the team. For these reasons this page is dedicated to those men who mold the team - the coaches.

*Hockey time? It must be fall!
Those Rumson girls sure drive those balls.
Time in on the whistle, we're ready to begin.
Such skill, such grace—
such bruised up shins!
They all try their best to score those points,
But accept their defeats and oh, those sore joints.
So goodbye to hockey until next fall—
When the girls will be back and driving those balls.*

*You're sitting on the gym floor with your teammates.
Your body longs to give vent to shaky nerves but as your name is called you will your legs not to collapse from under you.
You are part of that whole, working together for achievement and victory, but alone you must take deep breath and perform that split on the beam, the impossible hard dismount from the bars.
A routine of your own creation—the points were higher than you had dared hope
A winning season for the team—for you, the fulfillment of individual hopes, disappointments, and accomplishment.*

The background of the page is a dark, textured surface with a subtle, abstract pattern. The pattern consists of irregular, light-colored shapes that resemble a plaid or checkered design, though they are not perfectly rectangular. The overall tone is dark and moody, with the text 'SENIORS' standing out prominently in the upper center.

DR. JOHN F. KINNEY, JR.
SUPERINTENDENT

TELEPHONE 842-1597

RUMSON-FAIR HAVEN REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL

RUMSON, NEW JERSEY 07760

November 24, 1972

Dear Seniors:

Freedom at last! Doing what you want, when you want without interference. What a wonderful experience for you and what a fantastic gamble for me. "It won't work," "They'll let you down," "You can't trust young people" cry the doomsdayers. "Risk a career on the actions of a bunch of immature kids, you're out of your mind!" But I'm not or at least I don't think so. For I believe the Class of 1973 is better able and better prepared to make the senior program work than any class in the history of the school. Why? Because you have a good set of values, your decisions are based on common sense and you want the plan to succeed. As a class you have established a rapport with teachers and parents and you have accepted the responsibility that goes with freedom.

By the time this letter appears in the yearbook, we'll know the answer. I'm betting that you will break the mold. From here, it looks like a sure thing.

Sincerely,

John F. Kinney Jr.

Remember the Senior Program and the Precepts?

"Seniors are you with us?"

Spirited, yes, but not earthshatteringly.

A class, yes, but a class of individuals,

Interweaving a web of relationships throughout four years.

Yes, I remember the Class of '73, we grew up together.

Yes, I remember the Class of '73, we grew up together.

You don't love hatred and evil, of course. You have to practice and see the real gull, the good in every one of them, and to help them see it in themselves. That's what I mean by love. It's fun, when you get the knack of it.

*And the seasons they go round and round
And the painted ponies go up and down
We're captive on the carousel of time
We can't return we can only look behind
From where we came
And go round and round and round
In the circle game.*

*Yesterday
a child*

came out to wonder

Caught a dragonfly inside a jar

Fearful when the sky was full of thunder

And tearful at the falling of a star

Then the child moved ten times round the seasons

Skated over

ten clear frozen streams

Words like, when you're older, must appease him

And promises of someday make his dreams

*And the seasons they go round and round
And the painted ponies go up and down
We're captive on the carousel of time.
We can't return we can only look behind
From where we came
And they go round and round

xteen springs and sixteen summers gone now

Cartwheels turn to carwheels thru the town

And they tell him,

Take your time, it won't be long now

Till you drag your feet to slow the circles down

*And the seasons they go round and round
And the painted ponies go up and down
We're captive on the carousel of time
We can't return we can only look behind
From where we came
And go round and round and round
In the circle game.*

So the years spin by and now the boy is twenty

*And the seasons they go round and round
And the painted ponies go up and down
We're captive on the carousel of time
We can't return we can only look behind
From where we came
And go round and round and round
In the circle game*

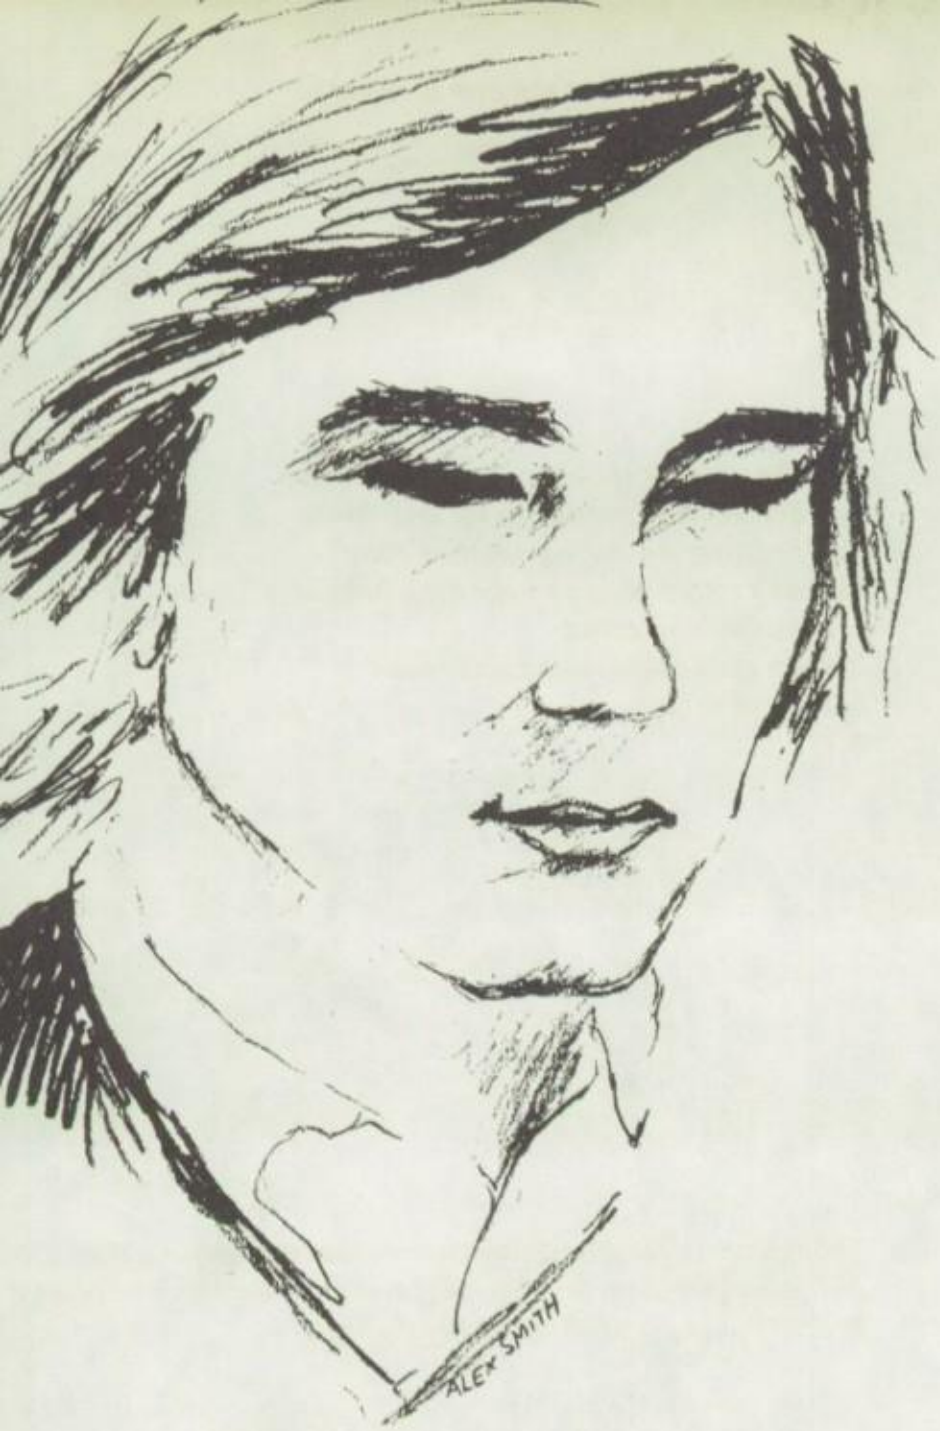

*Though his dreams have lost some grandeur coming true
But there'll be new dreams, maybe better dreams and plenty
Before the last revolving year is through*

MY DEAR, SWEET, LOVE — ALICE,
 It's been a fun year in school. Even though I didn't learn anything, well, I didn't learn anything in class, but by talking to you and "COMRAD Bob" I learnt quite a ~~bit~~ bit. You've got a good mind, I only hope you can hang on to it. It's hard to keep your head when everyone around you is losing theirs. But you're strong, so I think you'll make it. A lot has happened this year — the concentrated-tape we had to go through to clear the whole thing. (Pardon the expression "red tape." no pun intended.) Collecting for WBAI was your thing. I don't believe in collecting money for a cause like that. People that are dying could use that money a hell of a lot more than some radio station. Life first, my dear. That movie abortion was real grosse — but life isn't all roses & martinis!!!

That dude in the upper right-hand corner, over there reminds me of DiNicola. We had an "all-right" time. I don't know what to say, I think you understand how I feel about you — close! You're alright, AL. Be good — and remember this:

when you're getting tired of things and people are getting you down look up —
 see what the birds are doing!

CONGRATULATIONS
TO THE CLASS OF 1973
From the Manufacturers of your product
Home & School Association

We Don't Make Promises, We Make Guarantees

We have too many good things to offer you to make any up.

We won't guarantee you anything we can't pay off. (If we guarantee you Hawaii, start waxing your surfboard. You'll need it.)

Everything we guarantee will be put down in writing. In a legal document that you get a copy of. (If you agree to sign for computer training and the Delayed Entry Option, it will all be spelled out in language you can understand.)

We want you to know without a shred of doubt that you'll get everything you signed for. So we'll give you this card. On the front is what you signed for. And on

Enlistment Guarantee

The undersigned _____ who has entered the Army under the provisions of Army Regulation 600-10 (Enlistment options):

 Date _____ Signature of Career Counselor _____ Grade _____ Serial Number _____

the back is an address to write to in the Pentagon, just in case you didn't get what's on the front.

We think today's Army has a lot to offer you. We'll try to convince you of that. That's our job. But we'll never try to mislead you. That's our job, too.

Complete details about enlistment guarantee can be obtained from Sergeant Smith or Sergeant Armellino at 54 Monmouth St., Red Bank or call 741-5930

TOWER '73

from the Tower Editors

"Some get the elevator . . ."
—B. Koll

My, what an aesthetically-pleasing front. Nice-looking, too. What could this unique edifice, located in outer suburbia, be?

Why, it is a minimum-security commitment to excellence.

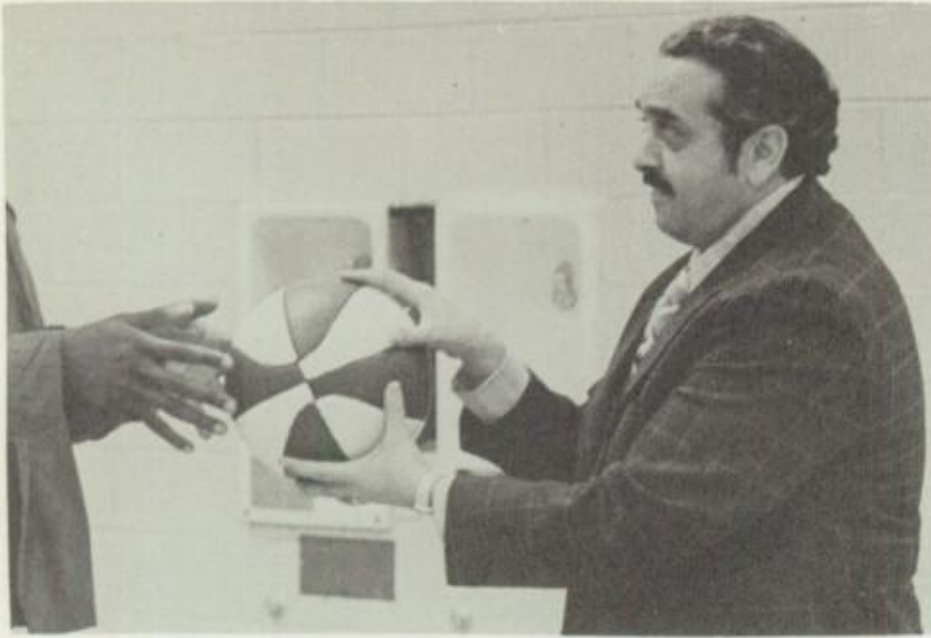

In the foreground is our beloved guardian and meditating at his left is the president of the board.

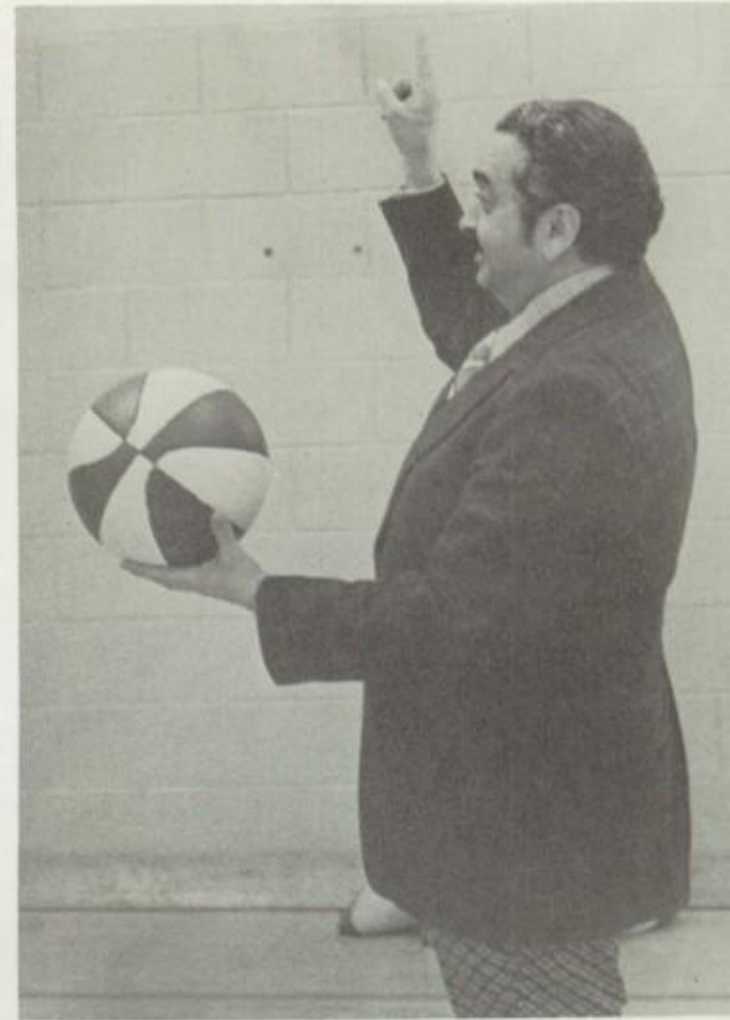

What board is that? Why, the review board, of course.

A group of inmates is released each June. Rehabilitation has taken place over four long years thanks to the devoted efforts of the guards.

This is a ball.

Watch the ball go up.

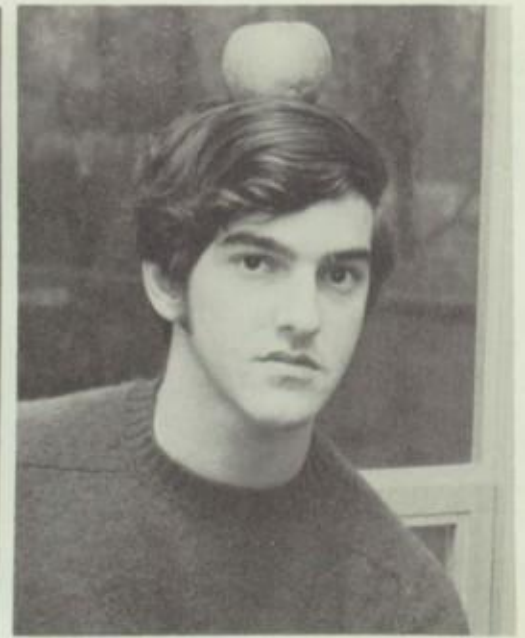

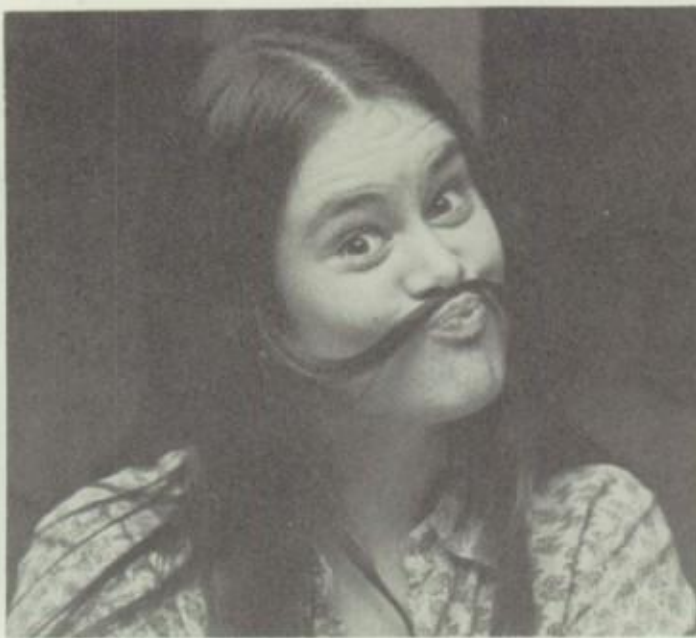

Sports play an important role. This is our soccer team. (Can you find two faculty members in this group? Answers, p. 220.)

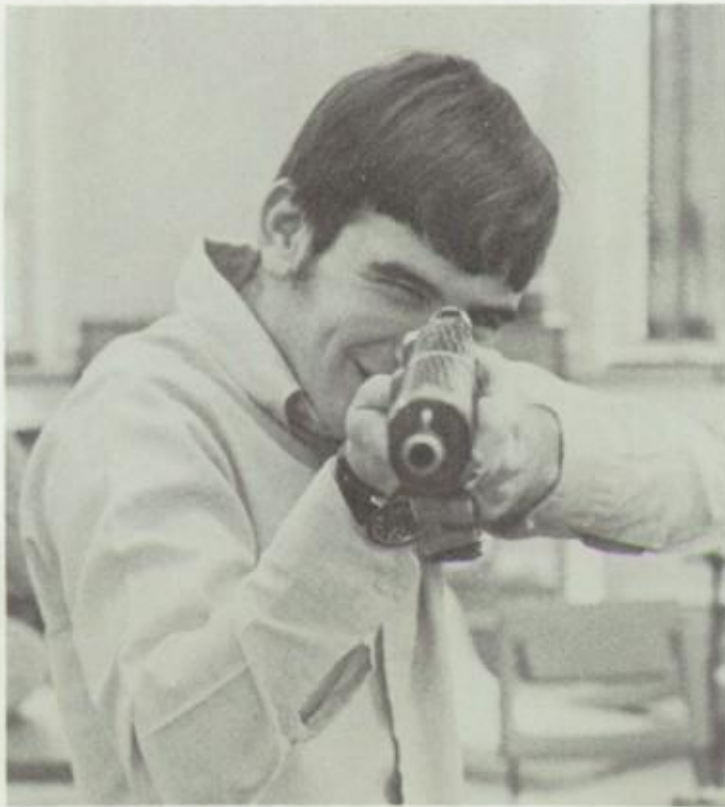

Cultural events are equally appreciated.

Uprisings are few and far between with most participants taking an optimistic viewpoint of the situation.

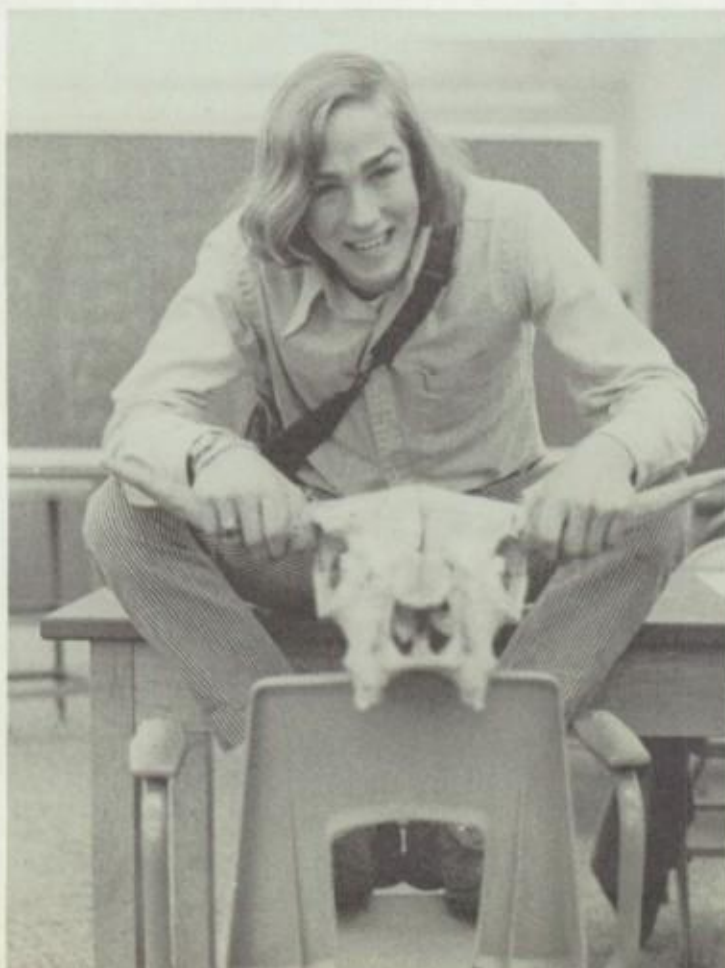

These three inmates, shown here in their amazing disguises, disappeared during the last revolt.

Some inmates get carried away. (Note the flag at half-mast in photo 1, p. 217.)

But the students enjoy life even though they evince their ecstasy in peculiar ways.

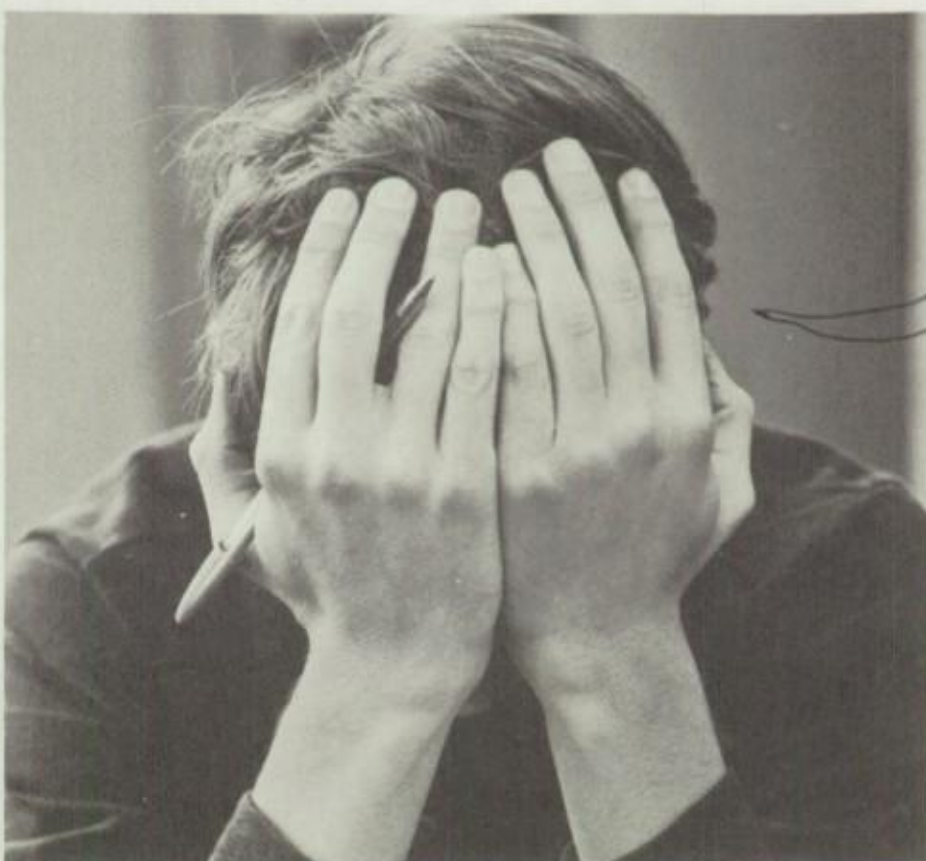

Foremost the inmates have learned to take part in meaningful activities.

All further yearbook business will be conducted through our French agent.

Co-editors-in-chief Marc de Laperouse and Jeff Handler would like to thank the other editors and staff; Mrs. Graziano, our ill-fated advisor; Mr. Petrucci and Yearbook House; the administration; the teachers; the students; everyone's parents; the land; the air; the sea; and the Class of 1973 for making the 1973 edition of Tower possible. (Actually Marc and Jeff just wanted to get in another picture of themselves.)

Hey, he liked the yearbook!

And as the famous tower fades into the distance, your car speeds along the new road of life.

To Alice,
Have a nice summer and I hope to see you next year (if you pass).

Uggs:

This kid is probably a freshman at ETHZ. He just found out he'll be there for 4 years! and he's about to have a coronary.
What can a sister say about her sister? you're a fantastic person, a good-hearted, warm person, and you're also a snappy dresser.

Don't let anybody put you down for what you believe in.
Just keep telling yourself that your cause is best, and all will be cool.

You really helped me along this year. I told you about all the shit I did and you never told mom! dad. and also you never held anything against me. That's nice. I really appreciate it. I hate writing stuff in most yearbooks. But this is different.
I don't have anything to say like, "remember the time..."
I'll just write what we're thinking.

When nah! I get our place in Florida, you can come down! get drunk with us.

Christ, ah, I don't know what to say. I guess I'll just say take life easy, fight your causes, keep wearing your hat with the buttons, keep being a great kid and loving every minute of it.

Love always,
your loving sister and future
musician,
Hilary (twice)

Dear all,

You & Mr. Loux are both my friends, WRB 41 FM, 99.5 is playing

Dear Alice
Stay intact and remain the Radical leader you are. Have a good summer and good luck next year,
Love ya.

Dear Alice,

I know we don't agree on a lot of things, but to me friendship is more important. Whenever you need someone you know who to call.

May God be with you always, in any thing you do.

Love,

Karen

Dear Casey,

You hippie radical phreak!
Now that the muddling is over who can we get to drive us to N.C.? I mean, We had BACcy last year.

Ah well.

Love and kisses,
Amy

Alice,
It's a shame
we had to meet in this school, but still it's been fun. Stay as nice and crazy as you are. Hope to see you next year.
Good luck,
Love,
Pam (Rocky)
